

HERITAGE BUSINESS SCHOOL

Announces

Faculty Development Programme on

Multidisciplinary Approach of Research - Lens & Techniques

Date: Feb 22, 2024, 3:15 PM Onwards

Venue: 994 Madurdaha, Chowbaga Road, Anandapur
P.O. East Kolkata Township,
Conference Room, First Floor, Block A,
Heritage Business School
Kolkata – 700 107

SPEAKERS

Dr. Shiva R. Adhikari

Professor & Head of the Central Department of Economics, Tribhuvan University, Nepal.

With 25 years of teaching and research experience Mr. Adhikari has 200 published research articles in renowned journals. He has significantly contributed to policy formulation in Nepal and recognized with numerous prestigious awards, including the research excellence award from Tribhuvan University, the best professor award from an independent institution, and accolades from WHO, Global Development Network, and Centre for Economic Policy Research (CEPR), among others., he has led initiatives like the SDG progress report and mid-term review of Nepal's national plan. His partnerships extend globally, showcasing his impact beyond academia.

Dr. Anjan Chakrabarti

UGC Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre (formerly UGC-HRDC), University of North Bengal

Dr. Chakrabarti was previously an Associate Professor at UGC Human Resource Development Centre, University of Burdwan. His research spans Agrarian Bengal, Development Economics, Sustainable Development, Gender, and Northeast India. With three authored books and contributions to over 50 research articles, he had completed six national and International Projects. He delivered invited lectures in various premier institutes of national and international eminence. He visited Europe and South-East Asian Countries to present his research findings. and serves as a visiting professor at esteemed Indian universities, including the Indian Statistical Institute, Bangalore.

PROGRAMME COORDINATOR

Prof. Rimu Chaudhuri

Professor

Heritage Business School, India